| STEPS | BADGE REQUIREMENTS | OPTION 1 | OPTION 2 | OPTION 3 |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Step 1 | Paint or draw with an art program. | Create a multimedia poster with the Web 2.0 tool Glogster! https://edu.glogster.com/ | Draw a picture or write a letter to an older family member or someone at your local nursing home. Ask a parent or guardian to mail it for you. | Brush up on your multimedia skills and make a Prezi presentation! https://prezi.com/ |
| Step 2 | Find some cool facts. | Learn about India's Holi celebration! | How did the zebra get its stripes? Find out here. | How does a tadpole become a frog? Find out here. |
| Step 3 | Take a trip online. | Explore Yellowstone National Park! | Explore the Metropolitan Museum of Art! | Explore Disney World! |
| Step 4 | Make a connection. | Make a Facebook live video that appeals to other Girl Scouts in your area. How will you try to gain interest of those that are different from you? Try to expand your audience! | Explore Google Maps and see how close you can get to a friend or family member's house. Try the same thing with your school. What looks different? | Pick a country you want to visit one day. Find information and make a short travel guide. Include facts on language, money, and major holidays. |
| Step 5 | Have more computer fun. | Publish a writing sample with Kidblog! https://kidblog.org/home/ | Game on! Visit at least three kid-friendly gaming sites and play the most popular games. | Print on! Use a computer to print your own stationary with your name. Bonus points for creativity! |
